Ahola was well beaten when turning for home. Stem Winder showed a little early speed. He runs to his best form only on a fast track.

BULLMAN WORSE THAN THOUGHT.

New York, June 5.—Yesterday afternoon John W. Schorr was positive that Bullman would start for Chicago this morning. Later he was advised by Dr. Hill that the jockey would have to remain here and keep as quiet as possible. An examination revealed that Bullman's right kidney had been injured and it is doubtful if he will be seen in the saddle inside of two weeks. He is confined to his bed at his apartment in Wally Fessenden's cottage at Sheephead Bay, but is comfortable and cheerful. He says he was held in the horse's jaws and shaken like a dog would shake a rat for fully a half minute. After being up in the air and tossed against the sides of the stall he was dropped to the floor and the horse was about to strike his feet when Hiram Pierce appeared. Seizing a curry comb Pierce threw it and hit the horse over the left eye with it. That caused the animal for the first time to release his teeth hold and turn from the prostrate jockey to battle with the rescuer.

Bullman has a small waist and the marks of the horse's teeth extend from the navel in front around the right side almost to the spine. The animal was a pet and his display of viciousness was a great surprise. Monday evening the wives of Walter Rollins and Charles Patterson, who were fond of the horse, had their arms around his neck patting him.

John W. Rogers said today of the report that Irish Lad will start in the American Derby: "You will have to verify that by somebody who has more right to speak on that subject. I train the horse. If he goes to Chicago it will be against my advice."

W. C. Whitney, when approached on the same question, answered: "That matter will be decided by my son Harry. I am opposed to sending the colt. My principal objection to sending him is he is not a good shipper. That was demonstrated by his trips to and from Aiken, S. C., where he wintered. What Harry will do I am unable to say. He almost persuaded Rogers to start Gunfire in the Standard Stakes yesterday, but Rogers is not starting our horses so often as they were started last year, and doesn't want to start them where there is a chance of injuring them. If Harry says 'Irish Lad will go to Chicago,' I suppose that will settle it."

"Doc" Riddle will ship the horses of Tichenor and Newgass now racing here to Chicago some time next week.

"We are satisfied here," said the trainer, "but Mr. Tichenor wants to race at Washington Park. After that meeting we will come east again and race at Saratoga."

T. J. Gallagher.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

The judges were dissatisfied with the rides put up by Henry on Tom Maybin and Lord Melbourne and demanded an explanation from him. After hearing the excuse offered, Judge Bryan informed Henry that hereafter his riding would be carefully watched and the slightest suspicious move would earn him an indefinite suspension.

Jockey H. Phillips was sharply reprimanded by the judges after the fifth race for his exhibition of foul riding on Prairie Dog.

G. Carroll, who is acting as the Western Jockey Club steward at the Hawthorne track, will have three of his horses now racing at Latonia shipped here next Sunday.

The horses which will in all probability line up to the barrier for the Harlem National Handicap with their jockeys and latest odds offered against their chances in the overnight betting are as follows:

Horses	Wt.	Jockeys	Odds
McChesney	127	Bullman or Gray	4 to 1
Flying Torpedo	110	J. Winkfield	5 to 1
Gregor K	98	F. Phillips	8 to 1
Allan-a-Dale	116	Crowhurst	8 to 1
Monarka	115	Landry	8 to 1
Linguist	104	Dominick	8 to 1
Lendin	94	H. Phillips	12 to 1
Epicure	100	H. Booker	15 to 1
Favonius	110	Gray	15 to 1
Port Royal	108	Battiste	15 to 1
Jordan	103	Houbre	15 to 1
*Hargis	103	J. Reiff	15 to 1
Lucien Appleby	122	Henry	15 to 1
Rolling Boer	106	Adkins	15 to 1
Airlight	94	Helgesen	15 to 1
*Belle's Commoner	115	T. Knight	20 to 1
Dr. Stephens	105	W. Knapp	20 to 1
*Jack Demund	96		30 to 1

*Doubtful.
Several of those listed to start are marked doubtful, and will in all probability be withdrawn, but several owners late last night signified their intentions of sending a representative to the post. The most likely to be added are Evea G. 101, Giffain 96, and Hoodwink 103.

If the track warrants it, McChesney will run. Much depends on the weather. Secretary Nathanson said last night: "If there is no more rain and the sun shines tomorrow, the Harlem Park track will be good enough for any horse in the world to run on."

E. E. Smathers said last night: "Of course I want to see my horse run, and I have many friends here that want to see him run. Some of them have come especially to see him run. Also I realize how much the public wants him to go. But if more rain falls and the track is too bad we will not risk him." McChesney yesterday morning worked a mile over the Harlem track in 1:52.

A NEW LESSON JUST OUT.

Through this mode any one (experienced or inexperienced) cannot help landing on the winner. It is now proving a success on Chicago tracks.

Play your own selections and keep ahead. Don't play some one else's selections and stay behind.

You should not play the races unless you are an expert handicapper. Your money is a gift as long as you don't use the correct figures. This mode will bring the American Derby winner to the front.

Learn to handicap and cash every day.

Something for beginners and all turf patrons. A complete lesson sent by mail to any address $1.00.

Romanelli rated Lovable along for the first half and took command with her easily at the turn into the homestretch, but she was doing her best at the end to stall off Jane Oaker. The latter finished fast and was watching the leader at every stride and would have won in a few more feet. Welsh Girl dropped back while rounding the far turn, but came again at the end. Winner—Blk. c. by Eon—Mermaid (trained by F. D. Weir).
Went to post at 2:28. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same.
Minotaur was lucky at the start and, striving early to retain his position and being vigorously ridden, he wore the leaders down in a long stretch drive, winning in the last stride. John A. Scott received an over-confident ride and was waited with too long before going after the pacemaker after they were straightened for the finish and only just managed to head him in the last fifty yards and was caught napping right at the end by the winner. Osgood has worked in fast time and forced the pace throughout and was probably unlucky to lose. Nevermore fell out of the race before he got into his stride and closed a tremendous gap in the last half. His best races were on this track. Orloff quit. Mayor Graham, Pittacus and Star and Garter all finished well up, but were outclassed.
Scratched—39416 Captivator, 112; 34823 Dr. Bissell, 103.
Overweights—Mayor Graham, 2 pounds; Miss Gould, 2.

Winner—B. c. by St. Saviour—Josie W. (trained by P. M. Civill).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second the same.
Sambo is a genuinely good horse and in fine form. Placed for the first six furlongs within striking distance of the pacemaker, he was sent after him a little late and only got up in the final stride. Himself got away running, led with his head high in the air and was not forced to do his best until the last furlong, where he tired badly. Carbuncle received a poor start and swerved across the track but, gradually closing a gap, he came with a rush at the end and was easily second best. Hunter Raine broke flatfooted and was immediately knocked out of the race by Carbuncle and further impeded by Glenvarloch. He gained fifteen lengths on the leaders. Numeral, under a pull, followed Himself for six furlongs and again sulked when called upon.
Scratched—39450 Herbert, 126; (39420) Torchlight, 105; 39417 Arden, 93.
Sambo, show, 1 to 2. Himself, show, evens. Carbuncle, show, 7 to 10. Hunter Raine, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 12, 23 1/2, 48 1/2, 1:00 1/2.
Added starter.
Winner—Ch. f. by Hamburg—Isaac (trained by J. Joyner).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second easily. Hamburg Belle is probably one of the fastest fillies seen in this country in a decade, has size, conformation and the most perfect action imaginable. It was for this incomparable filly only an exercise gallop to dispose of the fleet ones opposed to her and she won pulling up the entire length of the homestretch. Dimple fell to running quickly and her advantage at the start helped her to save second place. At that she is steadily improving. Contentious was outrun and compelled to turn into the stretch on the outside, but when straightened away she finished like a cyclone. Mimosa was nearly left and all tangled up. She ran an amazingly fast middle half and though badly beaten at the end for show honors she was evidently much the best, excepting the winner. Mapoota, a slow mover at the post, held on well to her position throughout. Trossachs ran green, is a reputed crackerjack and looks it. Fine Art went a fast three furlongs and was eased up.
Scratched—Fine Fleur, 114; 39452 Pirouette, 114.
Dimple, show, 7 to 5. Contentious, show, 3 to 1. Mimosa, show, out.

Winner—B. c. by St. George—Nervine (trained by R. Miller).
Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Northbrook secured a lucky opening on the first turn and, although hemmed in on all sides in the run up the backstretch and around the far turn, he found his opening when the leaders squared away from home and shot through, taking the pacemaker's measure in good style after a long stretch drive, winning going away. Ben Howard made the running hard held for nearly seven furlongs and only succumbed at the very end. St. Sever never got out of close quarters until in the final furlong, putting up a game race under adverse conditions. Kingraine was carried out on the stretch turn and finished fast. Oclawaha was badly interfered with at the half and forced to pull up. Arden, away badly, closed a big gap and is rounding to. Rockey's chances were ruined directly after the start.
Scratched—39451 Meistersinger, 104; 38999 Rough Rider, 103.

Winner—Br. c. by Dr. MacBride—Alabama (trained by F. A. Jones).
Went to post at 4:20. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Jim Kelly, with a pull in the weights and probably the superior weight carrier, trailed the two fillies close up, then flashed into the lead as they straightened out for the wire, winning with great ease. Agnes Brennan is very fast and game, but her big burden told on her at the end and she finished staggering, but gamely trying. Julia M., pulled back early as if with a view of placing her, then suddenly closed up the leader's wide gap, but had neither the speed nor stamina to threaten seriously in the stretch run.
